Wildland Fire Prevention in a Wet Year in a Dry Climate

Thursday, May 18, 2017 7 PM

OSU Extension Auditorium, 569 Hanley Rd, Central Point, OR

Please RSVP to (541) 776-7371

Cost: $10/person, $15 couples, JJSWA members free

Speakers/panelists:

- Lee Winslow, Oregon Department of Forestry
- Brett Lutz, National Weather Service
- Alison Lerch, Ashland Fire & Rescue

With all the rain we've had, growth of flammable vegetation will be vigorous this spring and early summer, elevating the fire risk. Plus we'll be dealing with the usual array of wildland fire challenges and hazards. Each of our panelists will provide a short summary from their unique perspectives on this year's upcoming fire season followed by questions and answers.

Agriculture, 4-H Youth, Family & Community Development, Forestry, and Extension Sea Grant Programs. Oregon State University, United States Department of Agriculture, and Jackson County cooperating. The Extension Service offers its programs and materials equally to all people. If you need particular accommodations, please call our Extension Office at (541-776-7371) at least 7 days prior to the event.
